

OFFICER CHRISTOPHER POULIN

Officer Christopher Poulin has been a sworn member of the Avon Police Department since September 2013 and is assigned to the Patrol Division.

A sworn Officer since November 2008, Officer Poulin began his career in law enforcement at the Waterbury Police Department. His background in emergency services is a combination of more than 18 years of on-the-job experience in firefighting, emergency medical services and law enforcement.

Officer Poulin is also a military veteran, having served in, and been honorably discharged from, the United States Navy (1998 to 2002). His military career included a deployment to Japan, assigned to Carrier Air Wing Five, attached to the U.S.S. Kitty Hawk CV-63.

Soon after joining the Avon Police Department, Officer Poulin expressed an interest in becoming involved in the department's D.A.R.E. program and in August, 2014, graduated from the D.A.R.E. training program and is now a D.A.R.E. instructor for the Avon Police Department.
